Presentation, Proposals (max 100 words)	The wine estate Al Canevon (whose name is derived from the Italian term grande caneva, meaning "large cellar") is a family-run winery founded in 1970 among Valdobbiadene's hillsides, the beating heart of Prosecco Superiore's production site. With its 40 acres surface, it is one of the few farmsteads in the area which can proud itself on spanning such a large extent throughout one single land lot. Al Canevon vineyard stands out as an excellence in the wine production area of Conegliano-Valdobbiadene thanks to the top-quality of its sparkling wines, produced from grapes entirely grown within the protected geographical designation of Prosecco, now a candidate to be inscribed in the UNESCO world heritage list. The estate consists of a smaller property in Valdobbiadene, including winemaking premises and cellars, and another land lot in the neighbouring village of Collalbrigo comprising the actual vineyard, that is, 40 acres of gentle slopes where the white variety of Glera grapes (better known as Prosecco) are cultivated, on a single hill surrounded by the breathtaking beauty of Conegliano's rural landscape.
